

REHOVOT EDUCATIONAL CONSULTING LLC

"Leveraging the Power of Education to "Build, Transform and Revolutionize."

Premiere Newsletter

Welcome to Vol1 Issue I of our newsletter. We are thrilled to announce the launching of Rehovot Educational Consulting LLC. Rehovot Educational Consulting LLC is an educational consulting firm headquartered in Johnson City, TN.

Rehovot specializes in "Generation Next" online and onsite training, coaching, mentoring and the delivery of educational services and products. We are a group of trained "forward-thinking" and "generationNEXT" competent professionals with twenty-five plus years of combined educational mastery and results. At Rehovot, we deliver on "Quality," "Mastery," and "Excellence." We call it the "Rehovot" QME Code. We are an uncommon blend of educational consultants and technical experts who work together to achieve sustainable success.

We are driven by opportunities to contribute to the educational success of our community in North East Tennessee, globally, and in the nation at large. We partner with clients to forge efficiency, coach and train educators and practitioners both online (virtual) and onsite. We also partner with educational product developers and industry-relevant experts, and most importantly we deliver appropriate twenty-first century skills, tools and content to foster productivity, growth and efficiency.

We are the FIRST educational consultancy group in Johnson City that is poised to offer virtual reality and augmented reality mentoring, training and coaching for teachers in their classrooms, administrators and higher education practitioners. We are deep technical experts, uniquely capable to help you understand how "immersive technology" can transform educational, operations, and student experiences.

Cutting edge twenty first century programs, training and coaching is what makes Rehovot consulting not just the usual consultancy firm but relevant and effective.

We recently moved to our new office space at 2831 East Oakland Avenue Unit 5. We are excited to serve our educational community in Tennessee, our global partners and the nation at large.

Our mission is to offer and deliver "Generation Next" educational products and services that are context-relevant, progressive, sustainable and cutting-edge.
